

16 HUDSON ER

5 shorts
Ages 4-7

Welcome to 16 Hudson ER, a series of Public Service Announcements about Health, Hygiene and Safety. Our initial series of 5 shorts was created in response to the Corona Virus COVID-19.

We hope to inform, calm and empower kids during these uncertain times with these fun, informative and powerful short videos centred around our beloved 16 Hudson characters.

Episode 1 - Lola's Sneezing School

Physical distancing at home can be fun. Lola holds school and teaches her family about the right way to sneeze if you have a cold.

Available now

Episode 2 - Washing Hands

Sam rushes home as usual and forgets to wash his hands. His elderly grandmother makes sure he corrects this and informs him that he needs to protect her as well.

Available April 27th

Episode 3 - Coronavirus Game Show

Lili sets up a game show on the balconies of the 16 Hudson courtyard to see who knows the most facts about Coronavirus.

Available now

Episode 4 - Social Distancing

Dressed in his favourite chicken costume, Sam goes out of his way to help his neighbours during this time. Offering Mrs. O to go grocery shopping is just one of his many ways to help!

Available April 27th

Episode 5 - Luc's News Hour

At Luc's News Desk, we find out why social distancing is important. With the help of his friends at 16 Hudson, he discovers new ways to have fun while still staying safe!

Available April 27th
